

2018 Community Report

Providing lasting and meaningful work, life and leadership skills to teens through experience and training in urban nonprofit bakeries.

With your partnership and support

259 teens
employed for their first paid job experience

41,600
hours of hands-on work and classroom
experience

152 teens
completed financial literacy training

99% of teens
feel supported in pursuing their personal goals

It's more than just a cookie...

"I've seen a lot of growth in myself since starting at Cookie Cart, especially in my communication skills. I never thought of myself as a leader because I didn't like talking to people, but now I'm confident in my own leadership style."

-Tyla, Youth Employee

Invest in leaders like Tyla!
cookiecart.org/donate

You Helped Bake Bright Futures

$571,063
total cookie sales

4,000 hours
given by 1,500
volunteers

29 grants & 868 gifts totaling $1,007,048

$227,364
in-kind contributions

2018 Support & Revenue

Total Revenue - $2,106,004

Capital Campaign revenue not included.
To learn more, visit cookiecart.org/financials

Thank you for investing in Cookie Cart leaders.